Additional documentation is required to verify the information reported by you and/or your parent(s) on the 2009-2010 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Based upon a review of your 2008 U.S. Income Tax Return, there is a discrepancy in the value of assets that are reported on the 2009-2010 FAFSA for the:

____ Student/Student's Spouse

____ Parent(s)

- ____ The interest earned on your Federal 2008 Tax Return does not correspond to the cash, and savings, reported on your FAFSA.
____ The capital gains you earned on your Federal 2008 Tax Return does not correspond to the investment value reported on your FAFSA.
____ You reported income from a business (Corporation/S-Corporation/Partnership) on your 2008 Federal Tax Return but no business net worth on your FAFSA.
____ You reported income from rental property on your 2008 Tax Return but no investment net worth on your FAFSA. Please provide the net value of your rental property as an investment.

Please complete each of the following marked item(s). Use the Reporting Asset Information sheet for definitions and additional guidance regarding how to report asset information. Report the net value of the assets as of the date the FAFSA was signed. If net worth is one million dollars or more, enter $999,999. If net worth is negative, enter 0. Do not make changes reflecting asset amounts that have been reduced/spent/increased since the date of filing the FAFSA.

- ____ $ _____ Cash, Savings and Checking Accounts
____ $ _____ NET worth of Investments (Investments Value minus Investment Debt)
____ $ _____ NET worth of Business (Corporation/S-Corporation/Partnership) and/or investment farms (Do not include a farm that you live on or operate)
