Dependent Student:

List the names of the people that your parent(s) will support between July 1, 2011, and June 30, 2012. Please include yourself, your siblings, and your parent(s). If you list someone 24 or older on this form and your parents provide more than half of their support, a Statement of Relationship must be provided. Foster children should not be included in the household size.

Independent Student:

List the names of the people that you will support between July 1, 2011 and June 30, 2012. Please include your spouse and your dependents. A Statement of Relationship must be provided on the back of this form for all others who live with you and receive more than half of their support from you. Foster children should not be included in the household size.

Note:

(I.) If any household member will be attending a post-secondary institution at least half time status in 2011-2012, please list the name of the college they will be attending. Due to changes in federal regulations, parents can no longer report college attendance.

(II.) If members of the household, such as a grandparent, receive benefits in their own names, those benefits are not reported as income on your FAFSA. These people can't be included in the household size if they receive benefits in their own names that amount to more than half of their own support.
